

NELSON AND HIS NEW SPARRING PARTNER

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Battling Nelson, just after their wedding at the home of the bridegroom in Hegeswisch, Ill. "Bat," who owns the town, furnished the preacher and the brass band. The bride was Fay King, a Denver newspaper cartoonist.

The Tragedian—Ah, my boy, when I played Hamlet the audience took fifteen minutes to leave the house. The Comedian (coldly)—Was he lame?

He—Women have no real judgment in serious matters. She—Yes, and men count on that when they ask women to marry them.
